

This webinar is for beginners and will explain key contract terms in material transfer agreements, non-disclosure agreements and research contracts. While questions about clinical research contracts are welcome, this webinar will focus on non-clinical research agreements. The material for this webinar is from The A-Z Guide to Research Contract Review, an e-book including definitions and sample languages for research contract terms.